

Home Learning Ideas One

Go on a number hunt around your house or outside. What numbers can you see? What are the numbers for? What do they tell us? 	Sing some nursery rhymes or songs with a grown up. What is your favourite? Do you know the actions? Can you clap along in a steady beat?	Can you help get ready for dinner? How many plates, cups, knives and forks or spoons will you need for each person? 	Can you go on a colour treasure hunt? Around the house can you find things that are different colours and then sort them into sets of green things, blue things, red things etc.	Read a favourite story with a family member. If it is safe to do so - visit your local library. 	Play Kim's game with a grown up. Put five or six small items on the floor. Try and remember them! Close your eyes. The grown up will take away one item and cover the ones that are left with a tea towel. Open your eyes and look, what's missing?	Help with the washing! Can you help match all the pairs of socks from the washing? Look for patterns that are the same or things that are the same colour. 	What shapes can you see around your house? Can you find circles, squares, rectangles and triangles? 	Share a story with an adult. What was your favourite part of the story? Who is your favourite person in the story? 	Practice using scissors to cut some pictures out of a newspaper or catalogue. Maybe you can make a picture with them.	What am I? The grown up will give you some clues about an animal, it has spots, it has a long neck. Can you work out what animal it is from the clues? 	Can you tell a story you know to a grown up? Can you put get the bits of the story in the right order and tell it so it makes sense?	Can you help sort the knives, forks and spoons into the drawer? Make sure things of the same type go together.
---	--	--	---	--	--	---	--	---	--	---	---	---

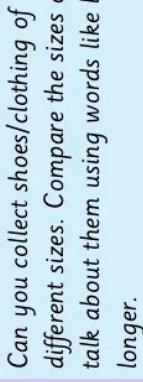

Home Learning 2

Go on a number hunt around your house or outside for numbers 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5- can you put the numbers in order? Talk with an adult about the number before, after and between.	Can you draw a picture for someone who might be lonely on their own? Maybe a neighbour or family member.	Can you make a name the fruit and vegetables in your house? Have a chat about how they feel and smell (and taste!) Have a chat with a grown up about where these grow.	Look at a calendar with a grown up - talk about the days of the week and what happens on each of the days. Maybe you go to Sunday School or Football every Tuesday. What special things do you do during the week?
Go for a walk and collect some sticks. Can you order them by length?	Read a favourite story with a family member. If it is safe to do so - visit your local library.	Look at a collection of coins How could you describe each coin? Is it little or big? Is it round or does it have lots of sides? What colour is it? Can you see any numbers on the coins? Ask a grown up their names.	Look at some old photos with your child. What differences do they notice? How have they changed? How have other family members changed? Can you put a baby photo, toddler photo and recent photo in order?
With an empty container can you listen to a grown ups instructions and fill it? Try with long narrow containers, short wide containers and containers of interesting shapes/sizes	Make a card for someone special. Inside it you can write a message. Tell a grown up what it says. Can you post it in the post box?	Make Playdough with a grown up 2 cups playdough 2 tbsp oil 1/2 cup salt 2 sachets cream of tartar 1 - 1.5 cups of boiling water (mix together and stir to combine)

Home Learning 3

Using lego or blocks can you make towers of different sizes? Which is the tallest? Which is the smallest? 	Go on a shape hunt around the house. Can you find circles, triangles, squares and rectangles. Talk about each shape, use its name and talk about the number of corners, sides and the length of sides.	Read a favourite story with a family member. If it is safe to do so - visit your local library. 	Can you collect shoes/clothing of different sizes. Compare the sizes and talk about them using words like bigger/ longer. 	Watch the NSPCC video Pantasaurus Discuss this with your child.	Talk about different times of the day - Morning, Afternoon and Night. Talk about what you do at different times of the day. Help your child develop an understanding that we do different things in different parts of the day.	Make Rainbow toast - put a little food colouring in water. paint this lightly on to a slice of bread and toast it. 	Look at some photos of baby animals with your child. Talk about the names of the baby animals e.g. lamb for a baby sheep.
In the sink or bath experiment to see what objects around the house can sink or float	Set a challenge for your child and set a stop watch on your phone. How quickly can they tidy their toys/how quickly can they match a collection of socks?	Have a dance party - each family member picks one song to dance to.	Help your child to take some photos of their favourite things using a phone or tablet device. Print these and make a collage or use an app like PicKids. 	Set a challenge for your child and set a stop watch on your phone. How quickly can they tidy their toys/how quickly can they match a collection of socks?	Make ice lollies or jelly. Talk about the before and after. How has it changed?	Listen to some classical music - what instruments can you hear? how would you move to the music? fast? slow? How does it make you feel?	